Finance (Excise Duties) Vehicles Act, 1952

A Chara,

The rate of duty for tractors used for haulage solely in connection with agriculture is €102 per year. You must complete the declaration below in the presence of a Garda before I may issue a licence to you.

Mise ,le meas,

Laura Sharkey

I declare that -

My only chief occupation is farming and that the vehicle below is used occasionally on public roads and then only:-

- (a) for the haulage of produce of my farm and articles required for the farm including farmhouse and farm buildings but excluding the haulage of fuel if being transported as a commodity for sale, or
- (b) for the haulage of similar goods for another farmer, provided that such goods are not hauled for reward, or
- (c) for the haulage for another farmer for reward of
 - milk being hauled to a creamery or cream- separating station
 - separated milk being hauled from a creamery or cream- separating station or
 - milk container being hauled to and from a creamery or cream- separating station or

- (d) for haulage of livestock for reward, and that the livestock -
 - are owned by a person not more than two miles from the haulier's residence
 - are being hauled to or from a farm, or to a livestock auction, mart or a place where a market or fair specified by order made by the Minister for Industry and Commerce under the Transport Act, 1958 is held.
 - are being hauled only on a day which such auction, market or fair takes place and
 - are not being hauled in either direction on any part of a public road which is more than twenty miles by the public road from the haulier's residence.
